$20,000. In Talbot's suit the damages asked for is $20,000. Both allege that at the time of the accident the train was running at the rate of forty miles an hour.
MADISON.
Huntsville Item: From Mr. E. B. Seay, who was in the city again yesterday, direct from Madison county, we learn that the late anticipated race troubles in that county have been about squelched by the prompt action of the white citizens. He says there is no doubt some such scheme existed among the negroes, as was stated last week. The trouble does not exist in the ville, but in the plantation section of the county, along the river, where the negroes largely predominate numerically.
