HOWDY, FOLKS—When Jerry Aaronson, 8, red-headed and freckle-faced boy from Mount Vernon, N. Y., arrived in Dallas Wednesday for a week's visit in Texas he waved his cowboy hat in hearty greeting. Jerry won the trip with an essay on why he liked Texas in a contest sponsored by the Madisonville Sidewalk Cattlemen's Association.

'Tex' Halloran Goes to Valley, But Takes California Fruit

Taking the grapefruit is only a half-hearted gesture of token resistance for war veteran Ray Halloran.

Halloran surrendered to Texas Thursday.

Weekly he told 1,300 witnesses at the annual barbecue of the Madisonville Sidewalk Cattlemen's Association: "I give up. Just call me Tex. This tour has sold me on Texas."
