Dear Sir:

In reference to your letter of June 26th.

The error in the number of girls for Midway colored is in 16 years. It should be 8 instead of 18.

At a regular County Board meeting of Mar. 1945, the Board Annexed Bundic # 21 to North Zulch Independent school District.

A petition was submitted by Bundic # 21 to Annex with North Zulch Independent. Also had petition to receive Bundic # 21 as agreed.

A motion was made by J.G. Lawlis to approve the Annexation of Bundic # to North Zulch Independent. The motion was seconded by H.B. Hannah. The Board unanimously voted in favor of Bundic # 21 being Annexed to North Zulch Independent School District.

Yours truly,

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, the retransmission back to the originating office for correction. The full one-half the unreported message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is a one-way message and both for or from its destination when received at either location.

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unreported message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars, nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the reported message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued, nor in any case for delays caused by unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines.

2. In any event the Company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or non-delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the actual loss, not exceeding in any case the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount the sender of each message represents that the message is valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender. The message is delivered for transmission, and unless the reported message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-seventh of one per cent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.

3. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over its lines or of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. Except as otherwise indicated in connection with the listing of individual places in the filed tariffs of the Company, the service is paid for the transmission of a domestic telegram or an incoming cable or radio message. Its delivery within the following limits: In cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where the Company has an office which, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company, is not operated through the agency of a railroad company, within two miles of the open main or branch office of the Company, in cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company, the telegraph service is performed through the agency of a railroad company, within one mile of the telegraph office, in cities or towns of less than 5,000 inhabitants in which an office of the Company is located, within one-half mile of the telegraph office. Beyond the limits so specified the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will endeavor to arrange for delivery as the agent of the sender, with the understanding that the sender authorizes the collection of any additional charge from the addressee and agree to pay such additional charge if it is not collected from the addressee. There will be no additional charge for deliveries made by telephone within the corporate limits of any city or town in which an office of the Company is located.

5. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted for use by its transmitting office. An initial message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

6. The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in the case of any message except an intrastate message in Texas where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission, and in the case of an intrastate message in Texas the Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within thirty days after the cause of action, if any, shall have accrued; provided, however, that neither of these conditions shall apply to claims for damages or overcharges within the purview of Section 815 of the Communications Act of 1934.

7. It is agreed that in any action by the Company, or by a third party, for any message, the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.

8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes and in intrastate messages shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

9. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

- To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should make it as clear and correct as possible, and should attach to the message a statement of the sender's name and address, and the name and address of the person to whom the message is to be delivered.
- The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery of any message received for transmission at the telegraphic message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars, or for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery of any message received for transmission at the telegraphic message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially provided for in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the service of the lines.
- In any event the Company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the actual loss, not exceeding in any event the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount the sender of such message represents that the message is valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
- The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward the message by the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.
- Except as otherwise indicated in connection with the listing of individual places in the filed tariffs of the Company, the amount paid for the transmission of a domestic telegram or a cable message covers its delivery within the following limits: In cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where the Company has an office which is shown by the filed tariffs of the Company to be operated through the agency of a railroad company, within two miles of any such main or branch office of the Company, in cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company, the telegraphic service is performed through the agency of a railroad company, within one mile of the telegraph office, in cities or towns of less than 5,000 inhabitants in which an office of the Company is located, within one-half mile of the telegraph office. Beyond the limits above specified the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will endeavor to deliver for delivery as the agent of the sender, with the understanding that the sender authorizes the collection of any additional charge from the addressee and agrees to pay such additional charge if it is not collected from the addressee. There will be no additional charge for calls made by telephone within the respective limits of any city or town in which an office of the Company is located.
- No responsibility attaches to the Company concerning messages until they have been received at one of its reporting offices, and it is its responsibility to each office to forward the Company's messages as soon as possible for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
- The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in the case of any message except an instant message in Texas where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission, and in the case of an instant message in Texas the Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within ninety days after the cause of action, if any, shall have accrued; provided, however, that neither of these conditions shall apply to claims for damages or overcharges within the purpose of Section 415 of the Communications Act of 1934.
- It is agreed that in any action against the Company for recovery of loss of any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.
- Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

Dear Mrs. Jones:

*Mr. Portman
why are we losing*

May I acknowledge receipt of the orders which were passed by the County Boards of Trustees of Madison and Leon Counties annexing the George Independent School District to the Normangee Independent School District, as provided for in Article 2922a of the Revised Civil Statutes.

I am sending the record of this transaction to Mr. John Olsen, Director of Census, in order that the census rolls of these two districts can be combined. Mr. Olsen will, I am sure, give you notice of the method in which he will handle this matter.

Very sincerely yours,

Order Declaring Results of Election

State of Texas:
County of Madison:

On the 14th day of August 1940, the commissioners court of Madison County, Texas, convened in regular session at its regular meeting place. All members being present, when there came on to be considered the returns of election held on the 29 day of July, 1939, within the North Zulch Independent School District, and within the Oak Grove common school District, to determine whether the Oak Grove common school district should be annexed by the North Zulch Independent School District.

And it appearing from said returns duly and lawfully made that within the North Zulch I.S.D there were cast at said election 23 votes of which number 23 votes were cast for the annexation, and 0 were cast against the annexation.

And it appearing from said returns, duly and lawfully made, that within the Oak Grove C.S.D. there were cast at said election 9 votes, of which 9 votes were cast for the annexation, and 0 votes were cast against the annexation.

It is therefore found and declared, and so ordered by the Commissioners Court of Madison County, Texas, that a majority voting at each of said elections, voted in favor of said annexation.

The above order being read it was moved by Commissioner Wilson and seconded by Commissioner Winters that the same do pass. Therefore, the question being called, all members of the court voted Aye, and no one voted no

Signed: D.F. Brown, County Judge.

I certify the above copy of the Commissioners Court Record to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Signed: Ed L. Jarnis
County Superintendent.

Dear Sir:

We have checked the census rolls and find the following corrections to be made. ✓
Common school summary Form W151 the total for seven year girls should be 41 instead of 42.

I failed to include the seven Negroes in the total for Willow Hole, the total should be 144. ✓

Summary Form W151 for North Zulch boys age 17 should be 5 total, Girls 13 should be 13 instead of 11, age 14 girls should be 7 instead of 17. ✓

We have no children in Brushey # 26. ✓

Write to Mr. Tom Martin, of North Zulch, for a record of the commissioner's court, for the Oak Grove Consolidation as he alone has this record.) Letter

Hoping this will be satisfactory, I am,

Yours truly,

May 16, 1940

Mr. C. L. Farris
County Superintendent
Madisonville, Texas

Dear Mr. Farris:

We have carefully gone over your census rolls and find that there are a few variations and discrepancies that we desire to call to your attention in order that you may let us know what corrections to make to adjust the discrepancies.

Your common school summary Form W151 calls for 517 white females, but the column adds 518. This variation I am sure is a typographical error since your roll count shows 997 white names. Please check the column and let me know what age bracket should be reduced so that it will accurately add 517.

Your independent district roll for Willow Hole shows a grand total of 127. You apparently failed to include in this total the seven Negroes which would make 144. Please check this matter and, if 144 is right for your grand total, please advise. Your attention is called to the fact also that Willow Hole will revert to common school status for 1940-1941 since the district had less than 150 scholastics residing in the district as of April 1.

Your summary Form W151 for North Zulch calls for 118 white females, but the column actually adds 125. Your total of 118 seems to be correct in that 118 plus 93 will give 211. This agrees with the number of white names included in your roll. Kindly check this matter and let me know what correction to make on the female column so that it will add 118.

Your population report Form W153 does not include Oak Grove No. 11 and Brushy No. 26. If these districts have consolidated with some other districts in your county, please let me have a copy of the minutes of the consolidation and an order of the Commissioner's Court canvassing the returns and the results of the election.

John Olsen
